NEW DISCOVERIES IN BOOZE MYSTERY

Chicago Woman, Rosa Maraufsky, Says She Suspects Her Adopted
Son and Her Chauffeur

ANOTHER CAR IS FOUND

Ford, Bought Here by Two Men, is in Hands of Town Marshall at Lewisville, Woman Still in Jail

Some further light was thrown on the mystery surrounding the abandoned booze car here late Friday night, with the discovery today that the two men who were the supposed bootleggers, came to Rushville and purchased a Ford touring car for the purpose of transporting the liquor, and the discovery today of the Ford which was abandoned north of Raleigh.

The woman placed in jail yesterday, gave her name as Rosa Maraufsky of Chicago, and claimed that her large touring car was stolen last week. After being held 24 hours in jail, a charge this afternoon of being an accessory after the fact was placed against her with bond at $1,000 which she could not provide.

According to the woman's story, she was at home on Saturday when she received a long distance call from Indianapolis, telling her that she could find her machine between Indianapolis and Cincinnati.

She stated that later in the day she received another call from Indianapolis, and that the person doing the talking told her that the sheriff at Rushville had the car. She denied any knowledge of who the person was that notified her.

Mrs. Maraufsky told the officials that she was a wealthy woman, and was the owner of a business block in Clark Street, in Chicago, as well as being the owner of a furniture store. The $4,500 automobile was purchased, she said, so that she could have her health benefited, and that it had been stolen twice before.

The woman stated that she suspected her chauffeur whose name she gave as Tom Silers, or her adopted son, Benjamin Maraufsky, and the officials have warrants for the arrests of these two men.

The search disclosed the fact that when the large touring car was repaired in a local garage, it also broke a spring 3 miles east of Rushville, and the two men came back to Rushville and here they purchased a second-hand touring car. The officials know from whom the car was purchased.

NAVAL DESERTER ADmits HIS GUILT

No Sentence to be Passed in Vehicle
Taking Case Until Word Comes From Authorities

HUTSON PLEADS NOT GUILTY

The two young men who were arrested yesterday, charged with vehicle taking, were arraigned this morning before Judge Sparks, and Frank Hutson, Jr., pleaded not guilty to the charge, but his companion, Kenneth Wright pleaded guilty. The sentence of the latter was not passed at this time, and Hutson will be tried on the charge in court next Monday.

Wright told the judge that he was 18 years old. He had previously told the police that he was a deserter from the navy, and word from the naval station in Virginia was being awaited before sentence was passed. If he is a deserter, he will be turned over to the government officials.

Hutson, who pleaded not guilty, went back to jail upon default of providing the $1,000 bond, but it was intimated that he would give security.

The officers went to Raleigh yesterday afternoon looking for a stolen car, which Wright had confessed they had taken and was being held there. Sheriff Jones stated that they found a machine answering its description in a garage at Lewisville, and that it will be brought here.

DOLLAR DAY EXPECTED TO BRING A BIG CROWD

Continuation of Good Weather, It is Believed, Will be Large Factor
in Success of Event

REAL BARGAINS ARE OFFERED

If the kind of weather which has prevailed for three days, continues over Wednesday, Rushville merchants are expecting a large crowd for Dollar Day, which will be held tomorrow. Indications are good for continued warm and fair weather which, it is believed, will induce hundreds of people to visit Rushville and take advantage of the bargains which are being offered for tomorrow.

Rushville business men have entered into the spirit of the special day and are offering real bargains to attract people to Rushville. Some classes of business have restricted their offerings to four bargains, each to sell for a dollar, but others have no limit and some are offering a dozen or more.

Local merchants hope by this innovation to help along the movement to restore normal conditions and believe that special inducements will go a long way toward convincing people that pre-war prices are coming back as rapidly as possible. It is reasoned that buying now to fill actual needs will do more than anything else to get business back to normal.

JURY GIVES VERDICT FOR THE DEFENDANT

William A. Wood of Greenfield Loses
$1,000 Damage Suit Here on a Change of Venue

THREE BALLOTS BY THE JURY

In the damage suit heard all day yesterday in the circuit court in which William A. Wood demanded $1,000 judgment from Mrs. Lue Bertie Prater for alleged injuries in an accident, the jury returned a verdict in favor of the defendant, late in the afternoon.

The case started early in the morning, and because it was sent here from Hancock county on a change of venue, the facts in the case were not known, and neither of the parties were acquainted here, which hastened matters in getting a jury.

The jury required three ballots to reach a verdict in which the defendant was not found liable for any damages. The plaintiff in the case was almost 80 years old, and attempted to show that he had given one-half of the road to the automobile, and that Mrs. Prater drove it recklessly into the horse and buggy in which he was riding, and which was badly damaged by the collision.

ANOTHER CANDIDATE IS OUT

A. L. Chew, Republican City Chairman, Announced For Mayor Today.

Another candidate "got his feet wet" today when A. L. Chew, corner of First and Harrison streets, announced that he would seek the republican nomination for mayor at the spring primary election. He is the third candidate to come out for this nomination, John S. Davis and John Q. Thomas having previously announced.

Mr. Chew moved to Rushville five years ago from Glenwood, where he served as president of the town board for five or six years. Mr. Chew served as committeeman in precinct No. 6 the last campaign and was elected chairman of the republican city committee at the recent reorganization. His candidacy will make necessary the election of a new city chairman.

ILL WITH PNEUMONIA

Mrs. J. M. Hufford of Greenfield, sister of Mrs. John Gantner of this city, is very sick with pneumonia, according to word received here by relatives. She has been ill since August and her sickness developed into pneumonia. Mrs. Hufford lived here many years ago.

MRS. SYLVANIA CROSS DIES NEAR SPICELAND

Widow of Late Eli Cross of This County Expires at Daughter's Home of Pneumonia

5 DAUGHTERS AND 4 SONS LEFT

Mrs. Sylvinia Cross, age eighty-nine years, widow of the late Eli Cross, died Monday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Clara McClain, one mile north of Spiceland, in Henry county. Mrs. Cross was stricken with pneumonia last Saturday and due to her extreme old age, her condition soon became critical and her final illness covered a period of only two days.

Mrs. Cross resided in Rush county all of her life until recently when she went to her daughter's home to reside. Her husband died sixteen years ago last August. Mrs. McClain and daughter Greta are also seriously ill with pneumonia.

Surviving Mrs. Cross, besides Mrs. McClain, are four other daughters as follows: Mrs. Mary Osborne of Iola, Kansas; Mrs. Lucy Newhouse of Tipton, Ind.; Mrs. Lucy Stickler of Knightstown, Ind., and Mrs. Harvina Ewing of this city.

Four sons: James of Charlottesville, Lon of Indianapolis and Cary and William of Rush county, also survive.

Mrs. Cross was a member of the Christian church for many years previous to her death. The funeral services will be held at the Hanner Christian church Thursday morning at 10:30 o'clock with burial at Blue River cemetery.

ILL WITH SCARLET FEVER

Loretta Bishop, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bishop of North Sexton street is critically ill suffering with scarlet fever.

SCHOOLS TO OBSERVE 300TH ANNIVERSARY

Miss Florence Hunt of Boston, formerly of Carthage, to Lecture on Pilgrims Tercentenary

COLORED SLIDES TO BE SHOWN

The Rushville schools will celebrate the tercentenary of the landing of the Pilgrims at the Graham Annex Auditorium Friday afternoon at two-fifteen o'clock when Miss Florence Hunt of Boston, Mass., formerly of Carthage, will deliver an illustrated lecture regarding the anniversary.

Miss Hunt, who was formerly editor of the Carthage Citizen, has been delivering the lecture in many places where the tercentenary has been observed, and has a large fund of information, well illustrated about the subject. She has been living in Boston for several years, which has provided her ample opportunity to gather facts regarding the history surrounding the landing of the Pilgrim Fathers and their early activities. Ninety-five colored slides will be used in illustrating the lecture.

The pupils from the fourth to the twelfth grades in all of the buildings of the city will be permitted to attend. Each will be asked to take five cents to help defray the expense of the lecture. About forty adults will be accommodated if they desire to attend.

SAYS ALL CLASSES OF PROPERTY ARE ALIKE

James Showalter, State Board Representative, Addresses Township Assessors Today

BOARD OF REVIEW IS NAMED

In addressing a conference of township assessors and deputies of Rush county, in the county assessors office today, James Showalter, representative of the state board of tax commissioners, urged the assessors to remember that all classes of property are alike in the fixing of valuations.

"The idea of many assessors has been that all classes of property were not alike in the matter of fixing valuations for taxation purposes," Mr. Showalter said. "The state tax laws do not provide for any classification. If a man has $1,000 dollars in bank he is taxed on the full sum. If a farmer has ground worth $200 an acre, that is the sum he should be assessed, and not on a less valuation."

Mr. Showalter urged that the assessment be in accordance with the law and be fixed at 100 percent, regardless of the kind of property.

Judge Will M. Sparks has appointed A. M. Taylor and Joe A. Stevens as members of the board of review, which meets in June after the spring assessment. Mr. Stevens is a new man on the board, the late George Havens having served as the republican member several years. Other members are the treasurer, auditor and assessor.

FRED SIMMS QUITS BOARD

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 15.—Fred Simms, head of the state board of tax commissioners, resigned today.

Simms submitted his resignation to Governor McCray, which was accepted.

The resignation took effect immediately and the post was tendered to Benjamin Carr, of Monticello, Ind. Governor McCray is waiting word from Carr as to whether he can accept.

In submitting his resignation Simms explained that he wished to engage in private enterprise.

TRAIN AMBUSHED

Cork, Feb. 15.—Eight passengers, one a woman, were killed early today at Innishannon, where Sinn Feiners ambushed a railway train there. Two Sinn Feiners were killed by soldiers who endeavored to protect the passengers. Four soldiers and a number of passengers were wounded.

FRANCIS M. KELLY IS DEAD

Retired Farmer of Milroy Succumbs to Paralysis Monday Night

Francis M. Kelly, age eighty-one years, a retired farmer, died at his home in Milroy Monday evening at nine o'clock of paralysis. He had been in failing health for some time and about four months ago suffered another stroke of paralysis.

Mr. Kelly is survived by the widow and four children—Worth and Wilbur who live near Waldron and Mrs. Ab Lyons and Mrs. Bert Lawson of Milroy.

The funeral services will be held at the Milroy M. E. church Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock.

CLAIMS SAVING OF MILLION AND HALF

Report on Operations of State Coal and Food Commission Made to Legislature Today

A BALANCE OF $81,601.45

Thousands of Dollars Coming to State in Tonnage Fees if Law is Held Constitutional

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 15.—Jesse E. Eschbach, chairman of the special coal and food commission created by a special legislature to overcome the fuel shortage and combat high prices, today submitted his report to the general assembly asserting that the commission during its active operation saved the people of Indiana $1,500,000 in coal bills.

Between July 31, 1920, and January 1, 1921, Eschbach said the commission collected a total of $104,907.45 in tonnage and license fees from coal operators and dealers. The disbursements between that period were: $23,305.62, leaving a balance of $81,601.83, which does not include the attorneys' fees and other expenses since the first of the year.

According to the report, the collections were made despite the refusal of some producers to pay the fee of one cent a ton as provided by the coal commission act. Should the supreme court of the United States sustain the lower court and hold that said act is constitutional, the state of Indiana should collect thousands of dollars additional tonnage license fees for the month of December, 1920 and January, February and March of 1921, the report said.

The report reviewed in detail the activities of the commission and explained the litigation brought against it. It set forth at length the orders of the commission fixing price and related to the distribution of coal.

The increased freight rates from the eastern and southern fields will so increase the price of coal coming into the state, that the prices to the ordinary commission will be prohibited and it is the hope during the life of the special coal and food commission to increase the consumption of the Indiana coal, which the good business men have overlooked, the report said.

The commissioner made no recommendations for food control legislation as required by the special act, because no funds were provided with which to conduct an investigation. One recommendation, however, was made, that the tonnage license fee be reduced from one cent to one-fourth of a cent to be effective until March 31.

EFFORT TO KILL DUNN "BONE DRY" BILL FAILS

Measure Which Would Conflict With Federal Statute is Still Before The Senate

SENATE IN BITTER ARGUMENT

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 15.—Unsuccessful efforts were made in the state senate today to kill the Dunn "bone dry" amendment to the prohibition law, which would make the Indiana law conflict with the federal statute.

Senator Nejd of Whiting moved to indefinitely postpone the measure and started an argument which became bitter. His motion was tabled on motion of Senator Dunn, sponsor of the bill, by a vote of 25 to 17. This means that the bill still remains before the senate for consideration.

The section which has met with most opposition—that section which would make unlawful the mere possession above a specified amount—was stricken out on motion of Senator Dunn. Numerous other attempts were made to amend the bill but these failed.

POPULATION PIVOT IS NEAR WHITEHALL

Center Moves From Bloomington to Jimmie Herrin's Hilly Farm Nine Miles Away

EXPERTS TO LOCATE SPOT

Bloomington, Ind., Feb. 15—Whitehall awoke to the fact today that it was the hub of the United States. For somewhere on Jimmie Herrin's hilly forty-acre farm which adjoins the village, is the new center of population of the country as fixed by the national census bureau.

In the last decade the center has moved only nine miles and in a westerly direction. The census of 1910 fixed it on the grounds of Showers Brothers' Company, furniture manufacturers, in Bloomington. Now it has moved to Whitehall, one of the oldest settlements in this part of Indiana, which is composed of two stores and a few houses, and which is situated just across the Monroe-Owen county line in Owen county.

NEW DISCOVERIES
IN BOOZE MYSTERY

The Ford was driven north from this city, and became stranded a few miles north of Raleigh, and farmers in that vicinity say that two men left it, and the machine then was taken in charge by the Lewisville town marshal.

Two men, Frank Hutson, Jr., and Kenneth Wright are held in jail on a charge of vehicle taking and Wright has confessed that they had a stolen machine near Raleigh, which might be the same car. These two young men may in some manner be implicated with the booze runners.

Mrs. Maraufsky has the appearance of being wealthy, and gave the officers names of several Chicago people whom she wanted to be notified of her circumstance here. She described the car here, but the serial number on the motor differed from the one on this car.

With the additional evidence obtained today, it is thought very likely that some further light will be thrown on the matter within a day or so. Mrs. Maraufsky will be arraigned before Judge Sparks in the morning, at which time she can enter a plea of the charge, and will then be probably examined further.

Will You Save a Life?

If you were starving in your home and your neighbors passed you by in total indifference to your sufferings, what would you think of them?

In China there are thirty millions of unhappy people who are starving today because their crops have failed and there is no more food for them to eat, except such as may be sent in from outside sources.

The president of the United States has appealed to all Americans—to us—to come to the relief of these starving people, many of them helpless babes in arms.

Great contributions are being made in the large cities, and supplies are being rushed to the famished land as rapidly as possible.

But the heart of America is not along in the metropolitan centers of population. It is everywhere. IT IS IN THIS TOWN.

Nowhere in this broad land is greater compassion and generosity to be found in proportion to numbers than that possessed by our own citizens.

But what are we doing for these starving millions?

If our people would contribute only a mite each—25 or 50 cents—it would be a godsend to many in starving China. It would save human lives which otherwise must perish.

The Chinese are not begging for bread. They are miserably dying instead!

LETTING the old cough or cold drag on, or the new one develop seriously, is folly, especially when at druggists, you can get such a proved and successful remedy as Dr. King's New Discovery.

For over fifty years, a standard remedy for coughs, colds and grippe. Eases croup also. Loosens up the phlegm, quiets the croaky cough, stimulates the bowels, thus relieving the congestion. All druggists, 60 cents, $1.20 a bottle.

designated by the president as treasurer of the fund.

As we do in this world, so must we expect to be done by.

And We Laugh

Mr. Harding is holding many conferences with statesmen of a national reputation, presumably with a view to selecting the members of his cabinet.

That is nothing new. All newly elected presidents do the same. Ditto to the governors.

But there is an amusing side to this interesting pastime.

If John Smith, Tom Jones, Joe Dugan or any other fellow who has ever been heard of politically drops in to call on the future president the daily press correspondents immediately convert him into cabinet timber and herald his possible selection to the world.

It is pleasing to the vanity of these small bore politicians, supplies the big dailies with necessary bunk, is probably more or less irritating to the president-elect, and is intensely amusing to the average person of common sense who reads the stuff.

But, then, it's all in the daily grind, and the reporter who doesn't turn out his grist is soon separated from the payroll.

The Indianapolis News complains about the superabundance of advice President-elect is receiving and proceeds to give him a half column of it. Of course, the News' idea is that the advice ought to be sorted according to News standards.

A strange animal is disbursing the peace near English, Ind., according to newspaper headlines, which indicates that some dispenser of "hooch" has been in that vicinity.

Judging from the burglaries and holdups which are being committed in Indianapolis the state capital and not the state needs that much-urged state constabulary.

It is better to be cheated than to cheat.

Pleasure is always at hand except when you go chasing after it.

A man is apt to do his best work before he is spoiled by a degree or a title.

The ideal marriage is one where a man's wife and his affinity are the same woman.

Diplomacy doesn't accomplish half so much in married life as just plain frankness.

Hez Heck says: "You seldom see any of these literary fellers hanging around the sawbuck or woodpile."

Vocational training in high schools is to have a somewhat augmented income hereafter, if the bill agreed on by the House is made a law. The bill calls for a tax levy of 1 cent on each $100 of taxables, which would mean a fund of something like $300,000 a year on the basis of present valuations for taxation. A fight was made for a one-cent levy, but the House ways and means committee recommended the 1 cent adjustment and this plan prevailed. The State Tax Board had held that one-fifth of a cent was sufficient under existing valuations. Friends of vocational training, however, still declare that one cent is required for adequate development of the work. Out of this same fund the county agricultural agents are paid the state's portion of their salaries, or $1,000 to each county having a county agent. It is good to know that the vocational training work in high schools at least will be maintained on a basis of growth rather than retrogression.

THE TREND of LEGISLATION

BY GEO. W. STOUT
State Chamber of Commerce

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 15.—While the senate has passed the bill to remove the Indiana Reformatory from Jeffersonville to Putnamville, there will be serious discussion of the advisability or unadvisability of merging the Reformatory and the State Penal Farm. The two institutions are radically different in intent and in method. The Reformatory has developed extraordinary and valuable functions for upbuilding character and for training the young men there consigned. Advocates of "reformism" rather than vindictive justice,—the Indiana Constitution's own definition of the purpose of the state—are insisting that it would be a grave error and a backward step to combine the Reformatory and the Penal Farm. MONEY CONTINUES TO COME

Twenty-Five Dollars More For Allied Relief Council

Contributions to the fund being raised in Rush county for the European Relief Council to help save the starving children of Europe, continues to grow, despite the fact that it was presumed no more money would be received after the first effort was made by Robert E. Mansfield, who has collected close to $2,000 in the county.

The latest contributors are John S. Beale of this city, who gave $15, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Billings, who sent $10 for the fund to Mr. Mansfield. It is estimated that Rush county's contribution towards this relief work will mount far above $2,000 because many persons sent subscriptions through other agencies before the appeal was made locally. Other persons wishing to contribute may send the money to Mr. Mansfield.

Final Game

7:15 p. m. Winners of two afternoon games.

The season tickets were to be placed on sale today for the games. Everett Case, Columbus high school coach, will act as referee for all of the games. W. E. Waggoner of Arlington will be the scorer and Van Hood of Carthage, timer.

The Rushville high school athletic association will present the winning team with a silver loving cup.

Among the rules adopted last night by which the tourney will be governed, are rules which apply to practically all state tournaments. Each team can have ten players certified, but the first eight used will be the limit for each team.

Each game will consist of 15 minute halves, even including the final game. Meals will be served the players, officials and visitors at the Main Street Christian church basement.

"HEADLOCK HOLD" DIVIDES MAT FANS

Wrestling Bout Enthusiasts Meet Disagreement Over Edict of a Noted Wrestler

JACK CURLEY ISSUES BAN

BY HENRY L. FARRELL

New York, Feb. 15—Jack Curley's ban on the "headlock hold" in wrestling bouts in New York has divided the ranks of the grapplers and mat fans.

Mostly effected by the edict of the promoter who has become practically the controller of the sport in America, of course, is the heavyweight champion, Ed "Strangler" Lewis who worked his way up and won the title by the "headlock."

Lewis claims that the prohibition of his pet hold will just about ruin him as the most lucrative matches are staged in New York and as smaller promoters in other states are following the lead of Curley in outlawing the hold.

Many fans claim the headlock is not more punishing or brutal than the "scissors" of the former champion Joe Stecher, or the toe hold.

Earl Cadock, judged by many fans the best of all the present crop of matmen, is among the grapplers who side with Lewis and claim that the hold is not so dangerous that it should be ruled out.

Lewis is highly wrought up over Curley's action claiming that no complaint was made about the hold until he won the title.

Curley bases his action on the grounds that the public and the press demanded a ban on the grip after Lewis had injured several opponents.

INDIANA BACK AT TOP OF THE LADDER

Crimson Basketball Team Excel Ohio University on Hardwood, Winning 33 to 11

TIES ILLINOIS FOR HONOR

Bloomington, Ind., Feb. 15—Indiana jumped back up to the top of the ladder in the Western Conference basketball ball race by defeating Ohio State, 33 to 11, here last night and is again tied with Illinois.

The game was fast and furious from start to finish, two Indiana men and one Ohio tosser being retired by the fouling rule. Dobbins, Crimson back guard, was replaced by Maynard nine minutes from the start after four personals had been called. Indiana's team work was flashy and the best seen on the home floor this season. Dean, Marxson, Thomas and DeHority did some clever passing and dribbling, which continually drew a glad hand from the 3,500 present. Ohio State's close guarding under the basket prevented the score from being much larger. At half time the Crimson was leading, 16 to 7. During the early session seventeen fouls were called.

The lineup and summary follows: Indiana (33) Ohio State (11) DeHority F Workman Marxson F Blair Dean C Slyker Thomas G Greenspun Dobbins G Robinson Substitutions—Maynard for Dobbins, Dudley for Greenspun, House for Maynard, Pence for Workman, Vontress for DeHority. Field goals—DeHority 3, Dean 7, Marxson 2, Thomas, Workman, Greenspun, Blair 2. Foul goals—Dean T. Slyker 3.

TWO LODGE TEAMS PLAY

K. of P. and K. of C. Teams Will Meet on Thursday Night

Two Rushville lodge teams will meet again here Thursday night when the K. of P. team will take on the K. of C. team on the Modern Appliance floor. A few weeks ago the K. of P. team won out by a few points, when the K. of C. team staged a rally in the last half, that almost gave them the game. It is said that the K. of C. will have one or two new players, and they have been practicing hard for the game, while the K. of P. team will use practically the same line-up as before. The game will no doubt attract a good crowd.

GOPHERS, 26 PURPLE 11

Evanston, Ill., Feb. 15—Northwestern lost her sixth straight Conference game of the season here last night to Minnesota, 26 to 11. Only in the first part of the game was the Purple able to cope with the Gophers and after that Oss and Arnston, started a drive that shot the Gophers out to a comfortable lead. The floor work of Oss was particularly flashy. The victory raises Minnesota to a tie with Michigan for fifth place with four games won, and four lost each.

Worth While Information For The Sick and Ailing

In the performance of good health results to men, women and children, afflicted in the aggregate by about every namable disease and disorder it is daily being demonstrated by the Chiropractors that the secret of health lies in the perfection of the spine.

Disease establishes itself in any part of the body, when nerves become unable to carry the normal amount of vital energy from the brain. In the greater majority of cases the real cause will be found in mechanical pressure on the nerves as they pass through spaces between the bones of the spinal column.

Every Chronic Disorder is the final result of standing conditions of spinal deviations. By examining the spine the Cause of any disease, or weakness, or any impairment of health, whatsoever, contained in the common understanding of disease and disorders, can be found, and in most cases can readily be removed, by Chiropractic Adjustments.

Pains about the head, face, eyes, ears, neck, back or limbs, disorders of the brain, lungs, heart, stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels; lowered vitality and sleeplessness are some of the conditions that have in many instances been restored by Chiropractic Adjustments.

Mr. and Mrs. Ora Cline entertained last evening with a pitch-in supper. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Cline, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gibson and daughter Marion Dorothy. Mr. and Mrs. Cline are moving to a farm south of New Salem. * * *

The Band of Workers of the First Presbyterian church will meet in the church parlors tomorrow afternoon. Apron money will be turned in at this time and a report given. The Workers also will serve a cafeteria lunch tomorrow between 11 and one o'clock to the public. * * *

The Industrial Club and the ladies of the G. A. R. will meet Thursday with an all day meeting at the home of Mrs. Laura Wolverton in North Main Street. A pitch-in dinner will be served at noon. All the ladies are requested to bring their quilt pieces as the day will be spent in quilting. * * *

The Young Ladies Missionary Circle of the Plum Creek Christian church met at the home of Mrs. Jesse Brooks, Sunday. A delicious pitch-in dinner was served at the noon hour. The regular monthly program was given, followed by a social hour. Twelve members were present and one new member was placed on the roll call. * * *

The Junior League Valentine party which was held Saturday afternoon in the Arlington M. E. church, was attended by thirty-two children who thoroughly enjoyed the games and delicious refreshments served. The aim of the league is to have fifty in the organization by Easter. The League is steadily increasing in interest and number. It meets every Saturday at 2 p. m. Children from 3 to 16 years of age are invited. * * *

Samuel and Beulah Boyer, the little son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Boyer of North Oliver street, entertained eighteen of their little friends with a Valentine party yesterday afternoon. Games and music were the diversions of the afternoon. At the close of the afternoon the children were invited into the dining room where ice cream cake and candy was served. Pretty Valentines were used as place cards. * * *

The Inter Nos Club was charmingly entertained last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Marion Fletcher of near Homer. During the business session, entertainment and program committees were appointed. The members of the club decided to send a year's subscription to a magazine and other donations of victrola records, books and fruit to the Rehabilitation Club at Valparaiso Ind. This club is composed of disabled ex-soldiers who are learning a new trade at the university, a trade fitted to their impaired capabilities. The government pays the tuition and living expenses but all the social and home life must be provided by the boys or interested people. The Inter Nos club appeals to any other Rush county organization to aid if possible these boys. They are located at 507 Freeman St. Valparaiso, Ind. During the social hour which followed the business session delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. * * *

The W. L. C. met with Mrs. Var Hood of Carthage Monday afternoon, with the vice-president, Mrs. Eunice Publow presiding. In the absence of the secretary, Mrs. C. V. Gaus, was chosen to serve. Current events were the responses to the roll call followed by a paper "The Land of Exile" prepared by Mrs. Horace Foust.

The entertainment by Mrs. Hood and Mrs. Rowland H. Hill took the form of a Valentine party. The rooms were artistically and appropriately decorated with festoons of red hearts and the lights veiled with red shades. Many Valentine feature were introduced. Original Valentines were made, addressed and mailed at the improvised postoffice. On receiving these, the guests found they contained much humor and talent in a contest forming words from the word "Valentine" in five minutes. Mrs. Jesse Stone, Florence Hunt and Winona Newsom tied for honors for winners of the contest. A comic valentine was given as a prize. Mrs. Will Dill received a similar one for the consolation prize.

On entering the dining room, the guests were served by an inanimate "maid". The dainty refreshments were heart shaped and carried on the Valentine colors. Among the guests present for the meeting were Mrs. J. T. Paxton of this city, Mrs. Ed Elliott of Knightstown and Miss Hunt of Malden, Mass.

TO QUARANTINE TYPHUS
New York, Feb. 15—Following two deaths from typhus here, plans were being made today by the public health service for immediate establishment of the twelve day quarantine on all trans-Atlantic passengers. Under this system liners would be compelled to withhold their passengers from landing until twelve days had elapsed from the time of sailing to allow for incubation of the typhus germ which might have been taken into the system of the immigrant.

Discoveries made by the police of Barcelona and Milan show that the lot includes the three European Latin countries. Transmission of funds was effected through an American financial organization, with European headquarters in Paris, and ranches in Berlin and Vienna.

Soviets have been organized throughout France with Brest as headquarters according to the police, ready to take over the railroads, banks, transportation and all civil services. The plot appears to have been organized without the knowledge of M. Cachin, leader of the French Communist party, against whom the police say they will not demand the lifting of parliamentary immunity.

The discovery of checks emanating from Berlin and paid through an American transportation company appears to have caused a revision of feeling in French political and official circles and also among the workingmen's committee's which, so long as the leaders profess to be working for "principles" were willing to support them. A poster was issued this evening in the Second ward, where an election will be held Feb. 27, asking the voters to support the moderate Socialist element in reference to the extremists.

The French Communist press departing from its menacing attitude of the last few months, expresses surprise that repressive measures should come from Premier Briand "a former comrade."

L'Humanité, the official organ of the French Communists, appears to be especially upset by the arrest of its city editor, M. Dunois, a canceled check for 20,000 francs issued in his name at Berlin being held by the police.

The consensus in the chamber lobbies, where the robbery of the two Communist deputies has been commented upon freely, is that the government has struck a knockout blow against the Communist propaganda and that when the minister of the interior requests the lifting of

An Aggregate of $779,766.60 Was Paid to Retired Employees of The U. S. Steel Corporation

GREATEST AMOUNT DISBURSED

(By United Press)

Pittsburgh, Feb. 15.—An aggregate of $779,766.60 in pensions was paid to retired employees of the United States Steel Corporation and its subsidiary companies during the year 1920, according to the tenth annual report of the U. S. Steel and Carnegie Pension Fund, made public here. This is $46,059 more than was disbursed last year, and greater than any year since the establishment of the fund in 1911. There were 3,264 participants, 2,940 being on the list at the beginning of 1920 and 324 being added during the year. Two hundred and ninety-five were discontinued because of death or other causes, leaving 2,969 as active participants.

The total amount disbursed since the establishment of the fund is $5,880,581.60. The beneficiaries make no contribution to the fund. The money is derived from a trust fund of $12,000,000 established by Andrew Carnegie and the United States Steel Corporation.

METHODIST LEADER URGES ADVERTISING

Rev. Smith Says Churches Should Spend Money by Buying Advertising Space in Papers

CITES SEVERAL REASONS

New York, Feb. 15.—"Every church should spend money for advertising and purchasing space in the newspapers, paying for such space as conscientiously and continuously as it does the preacher's salary," declared Rev. J. T. Brabner Smith of the Committee on Conservatism and Advance of the Methodist Episcopal Church, today.

"Criticism of the newspapers, unless it is just, is harmful and there should be cordial relationship and cooperation between the pulpit and the press.

"Both the good sermon and the good newspaper article have in them the elements of human interest and welfare and are centered round some personality. The great difference between a newspaper article and a sermon is,—the preacher spends thirty minutes in coming to a climax, but a newspaper article hits the "bull's-eye" in the first sentence; the heart of the story is at the beginning and not at the end like the sermon".

SOME OPPOSITION TO WATER ROUTE

Bill Provides For Establishment of Connecting Link Between Great Lakes and Ohio River

MANY ARE AGAINST IT

Calls For Appropriation, Establishing New Commission and Other Unfavorable Things

(By United Press) Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 15.—The bill introduced in the legislature by Senators Meeker of Monticello and Bainum of Vincennes creating a commission to investigate the advisability of connecting the great lakes with the Ohio river by a water route appears likely to meet with some opposition.

In the first place, the bill appropriates $5,000 to pay the expenses the commission would incur in compiling data on the cost of such a waterway and gathering of maps and profiles of possible routes. Some legislators are bitterly opposed to appropriating any more money at this session than is absolutely necessary to maintain the state government system and this group is expected to attack it because of the appropriation.

Second, there are some who take a decided stand against the creation of any commissions on the ground that such bodies do not function properly.

The bill provides that the governor shall appoint five members to the commission not more than three of whom shall be of the same political faith. It would be the duty of the commission to serve without compensation and report back to the governor on the practicability of the project and submit an outline of one or more routes. Then the governor would submit his report to the next general assembly for action by that body.

The waterway would be designed to permit transportation by water from the North-Central States to the Gulf of Mexico, according to Senator Meeker.

Friends of the bill represented by Representative Humrichouser to create a division of engineering in the state department of conservation are using the Meeker-Bainum bill as leverage to push the Humrichouser bill through the legislature. They argue that if the Meeker-Bainum bill should become a law, the engineer provided for in the Humrichouser bill could prepare the data for the waterway.

Berlin, Feb. 15—Business man, economist or glad hander?

German authorities mulled over those three classes today in considering possibilities for the next German ambassador to the United States. High hopes were expressed that peace between the two nations will be declared shortly after the new American administration begins to function. Germany wants to be ready for an appointment so that relations may be resumed as soon as possible.

Nations previously resuming ordinary relations with Germany have received business men as ambassadors from the former empire. Berlin has drawn heavily on the big concerns at Bremen and Hamburg for her representatives. One of the most commonly mentioned names in connection with the Washington appointment is that of Director General Heinecken of the North German Lloyd Co.

Heinecken resigned from the company to prepare for the appointment, but later asked that his name not be considered. Later the foreign office sought to induce him to reconsider.

The success of some German professors in bringing about good feeling in other countries has led to the suggestions of several names. The men talked of most frequently are known to have had pacifist views and to have had no connection with the old regime.

A wealthy man probably will be named when the time comes. The pay under the present conditions is exceedingly small and the appointee must accept a portion of his remuneration as the glory accruing to the office.

The American who comes here as ambassador will find conditions far different from those surrounding James W. Gerard, the last head of the embassy here. There is no brilliant court life now. In fact the social side will be almost entirely missing. President Ebert entertains occasionally, but in a very simple way with none of the lavish decorations and exotic dishes which marked the Kaiser's banquets. Among the diplomats there also is lacking the customary social life of a European capital. Most of the men are swamped with work.

The American representative will be especially busy. The American mission has been conducting many investigations and compiling data. However, when the ambassador arrives he will find many problems confronting him and requiring business ability and diplomatic skill.

NO BLUE LAWS YET FOR LEGISLATORS

Indiana Has Few Laws Which Make Sunday Blue, and Further Amendments Not Proposed

A FEW INSTANCES ARE NOTED

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 15—Members of this legislature have not had to contend with any legislation which would make the Sundays bluer. There has not yet been any proposal put before them to pass additional blue laws for the regulation of Hoosier Sabbath life.

This state has a few blue laws. The Indiana statute on Sunday observance prohibits "rioting, hunting, fishing, quarreling or engaging in common labor or the usual avocation—works of charity and necessity only excepted."

The penalty for violating this Sunday law is a fine of $1 to $10. The supreme court of Indiana in 1893 held:

"If the act of giving shows is part of the usual vocation, certainly it comes within the letter of the law," the court held.

The supreme court has also held that labor cannot be done in Sunday merely to avoid delay in getting goods to market. Another ruling held that township assessors cannot collect compensation for work he does on Sunday.

PROGRESS OF H.B. 296 IS WATCHED

Proposes to Add to Department of Conservation a Division of Engineering—Appropriates $15,000

TO INVESTIGATE SWAMP LAND

Humrichouser Measure Relates to Developing Water Power Sites on Hoosier Streams

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 15—Friends of conservation, Purdue University, officials of the state department of conservation and citizens interested in developing water power sites on the Tippecanoe river and other Hoosier streams are watching with interest the progress before the employment of a personnel

296, introduced by Representative Humrichouser of Marshall county. This bill proposes to add to the department of conservation a division of engineering and carries an appropriation of $15,000 for the employment of a state engineer and personnel necessary for the proper discharge of such duties.

The purpose of the new division would be to investigate, compile and disseminate information and make recommendations relative to the drainage of swamp lands and the reclamation of arable lands now non-productive.

Indiana at present has a law empowering the state conservation department to investigate and recommend for solution stream pollution problems, but the department since its creation has never received funds for the employment of a personnel necessary for such work. The Humrichouser bill if it becomes a law will simplify this.

Friends of the Humrichouser bill points out that Indiana is in vital need of a state engineer, especially in view of the recent large drainage projects conducted and those in litigation. They assert had there been a state engineer the Kankakee drainage project would have been handled in such a way as to have prevented the present muddle due to large rocks obstructing the river near Momence, Ill., and which must be blasted away at great cost before the drainage scheme is perfected. They call specific attention to the Noble-Lagrange drainage proposal which would have saddled an enormous expense upon hundreds of land owners who could not possibly have benefitted, and while a few would have profited from this project, much of the area under consideration could have been relieved of surplus water by tiling at a nominal cost rather than by dredge ditches at enormous expenditure. Particular need of an engineer at this time is vital they claim, in view of the proposed development of hydro-electric power on the Tippecanoe river.

There is a well advanced plan now being considered whereby Eastern Chicago and Indiana capitalists propose to harness this beautiful stream and acquire many hundreds of electric h. p. At a recent meeting in this city of the Indiana Engineer's Society a super-hydro-electric project on the Tippecanoe was talked of to cost approximately $30,000,000 which proposed to eliminate millions of tons of coal now used in Indiana to produce power, heat and light. Such vast enterprises of the near future when Indiana through increase in population must use more intelligence and intensively its natural resources, are threatened if the matter of establishing a state engineer is longer delayed.

Department of conservation officials said today that if the bill is enacted into our laws, the state engineer will co-operate with the engineering department of Purdue University in a similar manner which the department and Indiana University will co-operate in geological of information which has been gathered at Purdue and the services of technical experts at that splendid institution will be available to the people of Indiana at a negligible cost.

The Meeker bill introduced at this session proposes to establish a water highway between Lake Michigan and the Ohio river utilizing the Wabash river, and the bill calls for a survey of the Wabash Valley. Supporters of the Humrichouser bill contend that such a survey should be made by a state engineer and by the creation of such an office, can be accomplished more economically functioning under the conservation department co-operating with Purdue, than through an independent committee or commission.

Ulster Leader May be Peer

London, Feb. 15—Sir Edward Carson, the fighting Ulster leader and famous lawyer, celebrates his 67th birthday today, and received many messages from Orangemen the world over. Now that the Ulster Parliament—under the Home Rule Bill—is on the point of being set up, it is expected that Carson will retire from politics. He is mentioned for the important judicial position of Law Lord, which would entail his acceptance of a peerage. Carson could have had any judicial post he wished for years past, but he preferred fighting politics and he also has the most lucrative legal practice of any lawyer today. Rumor places his earnings between 30,000 and 40,000 pounds a year.

MODERN ENOCH ARDEN TAKES RIVAL'S NAME

William Zeisenhenne Took Name of Wife's Dead Husband and is Known as William Proffitt

WAS A VICTIM OF AMNESIA

Cripple Creek, Colo., Feb. 15—Taking the name of his wife's dead husband, William Zeisenhenne, Colorado's Enoch Arden, is today known as William Proffitt and is remarried to his former wife after an absence of nearly twenty years.

While returning from work one evening in Cripple Creek, Zeisenhenne was slugged and robbed. For twelve years he was a victim of amnesia and wandered over the United States while his wife and family awaited his return.

Eight years ago he recovered his memory in a Los Angeles hospital. On his return to Denver, Zeisenhenne learned his wife, thinking him dead, had married William Proffitt. Not wishing to mar the happiness of the couple, Zeisenhenne did not explain to them his peculiar disappearance or his recovery from loss of memory.

When Proffitt died, friends notified Zeisenhenne, who was in Chicago. He came to Cripple Creek immediately, and was united to his wife.

Zeisenhenne declared he took the name of Proffitt because his two sons had adopted that name.

REGARDS STRIKE CERTAIN

London, Feb. 15—Secretary Bromley of the British railway engineers union stated today that a nationwide strike is certain to be called if the government does not investigate the shooting of Irish railway men at Malloy last week, giving guarantees for the future safety of Irish workmen. Unofficial reports today were that a railway crisis had been set tentatively for Thursday at midnight. There was no confirmation of the reports.

ANOTHER CAR IS FOUND

Ford, Bought Here by Two Men, is in Hands of Town Marshall at Lewisville, Woman Still in JailSome further light was thrown on the mystery surrounding the abandoned booze car here late Friday night, with the discovery today that the two men who were the supposed bootleggers, came to Rushville and purchased a Ford touring car for the purpose of transporting the liquor, and the discovery today of the Ford which was abandoned north of Raleigh.The woman placed in jail yesterday, gave her name as Rosa Maraufsky of Chicago, and claimed that her large touring car was stolen last week. After being held 24 hours in jail, a charge this afternoon of being an accessory after the fact was placed against her with bond at $1,000 which she could not provide.According to the woman's story, she was at home on Saturday when she received a long distance call from Indianapolis, telling her that she could find her machine between Indianapolis and Cincinnati.She stated that later in the day she received another call from Indianapolis, and that the person doing the talking told her that the sheriff at Rushville had the car. She denied any knowledge of who the person was that notified her.Mrs. Maraufsky told the officials that she was a wealthy woman, and was the owner of a business block in Clark Street, in Chicago, as well as being the owner of a furniture store.
The $4,500 automobile was purchased, she said, so that she could have her health benefited, and that it had been stolen twice before.The woman stated that she suspected her chauffeur whose name she gave as Tom Silers, or her adopted son, Benjamin Maraufsky, and the officials have warrants for the arrests of these two men.The search disclosed the fact that when the large touring car was repaired in a local garage, it also broke a spring 3 miles east of Rushville, and the two men came back to Rushville and here they purchased a second-hand touring car. The officials know from whom the car was purchased.

Today Following News of "First Robin" Appearing

RUN NOT TO BE BIG THIS YEAR

If all signs were true, there wouldn't be much question about the approach of spring because another "sign" of "April showers and May flowers" showed up today. It was announced that the first sugar camp was being opened.Monday the "first robin" put in his appearance and was seen by a dozen or more people who reported the fact. Today it was stated that sugar water was running and that the camp on the Gowdy farm west of the city was being put in readiness for making syrup. The Gowdy camp consists of about four hundred trees.It is said that not as much maple syrup as usual will be produced this year because conditions during the winter have not been the best, due to the fact that there has not been much freezing. Much of the maple syrup which is sold in this section comes from the east, more especially Vermont, and Canada. Maple sugar-making is a lost art here, but in Canada much of this product is still made.MRS. SYLVANIA CROSS

5 DAUGHTERS AND 4 SONS LEFT

Mrs. Sylvia Cross, age eighty-nine years, widow of the late Eli Cross, died Monday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs.
Clara McClain, one mile north of Spiceland, in Henry county. Mrs.
Cross was stricken with pneumonia last Saturday and due to her extreme old age, her condition soon became critical and her final illness covered a period of only two days.Mrs. Cross resided in Rush county all of her life until recently when she went to her daughter's home to reside. Her husband died sixteen years ago last August. Mrs. McClain and daughter Greta are also seriously ill with pneumonia.Surviving Mrs. Cross, besides Mrs. McClain, are four other daughters as follows: Mrs. Mary Osborne of Iola, Kansas; Mrs. Lucy Newhouse of Tipton, Ind.; Mrs. Lucy Stickler of Knightstown, Ind., and Mrs. Harvina Ewing of this city.Four sons—James of Charlottesville, Lon of Indianapolis and Cary and William of Rush county, also survive.Mrs. Cross was a member of the Christian church for many years previous to her death. The funeral services will be held at the Hannegan Christian church Thursday morning at 10:30 o'clock with burial at Blue River cemetery.

in Success of Event

REAL BARGAINS ARE OFFERED

If the kind of weather which has prevailed for three days, continues over Wednesday, Rushville merchants are expecting a large crowd for Dollar Day, which will be held tomorrow. Indications are good for continued warm and fair weather which, it is believed, will induce hundreds of people to visit Rushville and take advantage of the bargains which are being offered for tomorrow.Rushville business men have entered into the spirit of the special day and are offering real bargains to attract people to Rushville. Some classes of business have restricted their offerings to four bargains, each to sell for a dollar, but others have no limit and some are offering a dozen or more.Local merchants hope by this innovation to help along the movement to restore normal conditions and believe that special inducements will go a long way toward convincing people that pre-war prices are coming back as rapidly as possible. It is reasoned that buying now to fill actual needs will do more than anything else to get business back to normal.JURY GIVES VERDICT
FOR THE DEFENDANTWilliam A. Wood of Greenfield Loses
$1,000 Damage Suit Here on a
Change of Venue

THREE BALLOTS BY THE JURY

In the damage suit heard all day yesterday in the circuit court in which William A. Wood demanded
$1,000 judgment from Mrs. Lue Bertie Prater for alleged injuries in an accident, the jury returned a verdict in favor of the defendant, late in the afternoon.The case started early in the morning, and because it was sent here from Hancock county on a change of venue, the facts in the case were not known, and neither of the parties were acquainted here, which hastened matters in getting a jury.The jury required three ballots to reach a verdict in which the defendant was not found liable for any damages. The plaintiff in the case was almost 80 years old, and attempted to show that he had given one-half of the road to the automobile, and that Mrs. Prater drove it recklessly into the horse and buggy in which he was riding, and which was badly damaged by the collision.Mr. Showalter urged that the assessment be in accordance with the law and be fixed at 100 percent, regardless of the kind of property.Judge Will M. Sparks has appointed A. M. Taylor and Joe A. Stevens as members of the board of review, which meets in June after the spring man on the board, the late George Havens having served as the repnounced that he would seek the republican nomination for mayor at the spring primary election. He is the third candidate to come out for this nomination, John S. Davis and

Assessors Today

BOARD OF REVIEW IS NAMED

In addressing a conference of township assessors and deputies of Rush county, in the county assessor's office today, James Showalter, representative of the state board of tax commissioners, urged the assessors to remember that all classes of property are alike in the fixing of valuations."The idea of many assessors has been that all classes of property were not alike in the matter of fixing valuations for taxation purposes," Mr. Showalter said. "The state tax laws do not provide for any classification. If a man has $1,000 dollars in bank he is taxed on the full sum. If a farmer has ground worth $200 an acre, that is the sum he should be assessed, and not on a less valuation."Mr. Showalter urged that the assessment be in accordance with the law and be fixed at 100 percent, regardless of the kind of property.Judge Will M. Sparks has appoint-

TO PUT END TO OLD PRACTICE

The bill which was described as a "real blue sky measure" and which was passed by the state senate Monday, was introduced by Senator Rowland H. Hill of Carthage, joint senator from Rush, Hancock and Decatur counties. It was passed without a dissenting vote. The bill at first was discussed as an amendment to the "blue sky" law which finally was made a separate measure.When he introduced the bill, Senator Hill said that one of the principal "blue sky" evils in Indiana is the paying of "dividends" from money obtained from the sale of stock or from money borrowed for the purpose of paying "dividends" in order to promote the sale of stock."We have companies paying dividends which are bankrupt at this time," said Senator Hill. "The dividends are paid simply to get the advertisement out of it so more stock can be sold."The bill now goes to the house. It contains no emergency clause.VIOLENCE NOT WAY TO SELF-GOVERNMENTKing George in Speech From Throne
Convoing Parliament, Refers To Ireland

PLANS FOR LEGISLATION

(By United Press)
London, Feb. 15.—No Irish self-government can be obtained through violence, King George declared today in convoking parliament. The situation in Ireland causes me distress.
said the king in his speech from the throne."The Irish people resort to violence to obtain the establishment of a republic. No Irish unit or organization can obtain self-government through violence," the king asserted.The king announced the government will attempt to cope with unemployment through use of unemployment insurance. Bills for the reorganization of the British railways for protection of essential industries against unfair competition and improvisation for the restriction on foreign trade will be introduced. The king stated that he hoped negotiations for the foreign trade agreement with Russia will be brought to a successful conclusion.King George asserted that estimates to be presented to the parliament will reflect the government's determination to reduce expenses. He also pleaded for more thorough cooperation between capital and labor.Pre-war splendor and ceremony marked the convoking of parliament.
The king and queen drove to the house through lanes of troops and appeared before the house in robes of white. The Prince of Wales and his brother, Duke of York, also attended the ceremony. The diplomatic galleries were filled with representatives of foreign countries.The section which has met with most opposition—that section which would make unlawful the mere possession above a specified amount was stricken out on motion of Senator Dunn. Numerous other attempts among the ambassadors being the were made to amend the bill—but these failed.CLAIMS SAVING OF

POPULATION PIVOT IS NEAR WHITEHALL

Center Moves From Bloomington to Jimmie Herrin's Hilly Farm Nine Miles Away

EXPERTS TO LOCATE SPOT

Bloomington, Ind., Feb. 15—Whitehall awoke to the fact today that it was the hub of the United States. For somewhere on Jimmie Herrin's hilly forty-acre farm which adjoins the village, is the new center of population of the country as fixed by the national census bureau.

In the last decade the center has moved only nine miles and in a westerly direction. The census of 1910 fixed it on the grounds of Showers Brothers' Company, furniture manufacturers, in Bloomington. Now it has moved to Whitehall, one of the oldest settlements in this part of Indiana, which is composed of two stores and a few houses, and which is situated just across the Monroe-Owen county line in Owen county.

The population pivot may be in a hog run or a corn field. According to the census bureau, which placed it

MONEY CONTINUES TO COME

Twenty-Five Dollars More For Allied Relief Council

Contributions to the fund being raised in Rush county for the European Relief Council to help save the starving children of Europe, continues to grow, despite the fact that it was presumed no more money would be received after the first effort was made by Robert E. Mansfield, who has collected close to $2,000 in the county.

The latest contributors are John S. Beale of this city, who gave $15, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Billings, who sent $10 for the fund to Mr. Mansfield. It is estimated that Rush county's contribution towards this relief work will mount far above $2,000 because many persons sent subscriptions through other agencies before the appeal was made locally. Other persons wishing to contribute may send the money to Mr. Mansfield.

COACHES DRAW FOR PLACE IN TOURNEY

Rushville Scheduled to Play Raleigh Opening Game Here Saturday Morning

ALL HALVES TO BE 15 MINUTES

Each Team Can Have Ten Certified Players, But First Eight Used Will be Limit.

The schedule for the invitational tourney which will be held here all day Saturday when eight basketball teams will participate from as many high schools in the county, was drawn last night by the coaches of the various teams who also agreed upon rules and regulations that will be followed in the tourney.

The schedule drawn for the games is as follows, and all games will be started promptly on time:

Morning Games

8:30 Raleigh vs Rushville.

9:20 Arlington vs Webb.

10:10 Manilla vs Carthage.

11:00 New Salem vs Fairview.

Afternoon Games

2:00 winner 8:30 and 9:20 games.

2:50 winner 10:10 and 11:00 games.

Final Game

7:15 p. m. Winners of two afternoon games.

The season tickets were to be placed on sale today for the games. Everett Case, Columbus high school coach, will act as referee for all of the games. W. E. Waggoner of Arlington will be the scorer and Van Hood of Carthage, timer.

The Rushville high school athletic association will present the winning team with a silver loving cup.

Among the rules adopted last night by which the tourney will be governed, are rules which apply to practically all state tourneys. Each team can have ten players certified, but the first eight used will be the limit for each team.

Each game will consist of 15 minute halves, even including the final game. Meals will be served the players, officials and visitors at the Main Street Christian church basement.

"HEADLOCK HOLD" DIVIDES MAT FANS

Wrestling Bout Enthusiasts Meet Disagreement Over Edict of a Noted Wrestler

JACK CURLEY ISSUES BAN

BY HENRY L. FARRELL
New York, Feb. 15.—Jack Curley's ban on the "headlock hold" in wrestling bouts in New York has divided the ranks of the grapplers and mat fans.

Mostly effected by the edict of the promoter who has become practically the controller of the sport in America, of course, is the heavyweight champion, Ed "Strangler" Lewis who worked his way up and won the title by the "headlock."

Lewis claims that the prohibition of his pet hold will just about ruin him as the most lucrative matches are staged in New York and as smaller promoters in other states are following the lead of Curley in outlawing the hold.

Many fans claim the headlock is not more punishing or brutal than the "scissors" of the former champion Joe Stecher, or the toe hold.

Earl Cadock, judged by many fans the best of all the present crop of matmen, is among the grapplers who side with Lewis and claim that the hold is not so dangerous that it should be ruled out.

Lewis is highly wrought up over Curley's action claiming that no complaint was made about the hold until he won the title.

Curley bases his action on the grounds that the public and the press demanded a ban on the grip after Lewis had injured several opponents.

INDIANA BACK AT TOP OF THE LADDER

Crimson Basketball Team Excel Ohio University on Hardwood Winning 33 to 11

TIES ILLINOIS FOR HONOR

Bloomington, Ind., Feb. 15.—Indiana jumped back up to the top of the ladder in the Western Conference basketball ball race by defeating Ohio State, 33 to 11, here last night and is again tied with Illinois.

The game was fast and furious from start to finish, two Indiana men and one Ohio tosser being retired by the fouling rule. Dobbins, Crimson back guard, was replaced by Maynard nine minutes from the start after four personals had been called. Indiana's team work was flashy and the best seen on the home floor this season. Dean, Marxson, Thomas and DeHority did some clever passing and dribbling, which continually drew a glad hand from the 3,500 present. Ohio State's close guarding under the basket prevented the score from being much larger. At half time the Crimson was leading, 16 to 7. During the early session seventeen fouls were called.

The lineup and summary follows:

TWO LODGE TEAMS PLAY

K. of P. and K. of C. Teams Will Meet on Thursday Night

Two Rushville lodge teams will meet again here Thursday night when the K. of P. team will take on the K. of C. team on the Modern Appliance floor. A few weeks ago the K. of P. team won out by a few points, when the K. of C. team staged a rally in the last half, that almost gave them the game. It is said that the K. of C. will have one or two new players, and they have been practicing hard for the game, while the K. of P. team will use practically the same line-up as before. The game will no doubt attract a good crowd.

GOPHERS, 26 PURPLE-II

Evanston, Ill., Feb. 15.—Northwestern lost her sixth straight Conference game of the season here last night to Minnesota, 26 to 11. Only in the first part of the game was the Purple able to cope with the Gophers and after that Oss and Aronson started a drive that shot the Gophers out to a comfortable lead. The floor work of Oss was particularly flashy. The victory raised Minnesota to a tie with Michigan for fifth place with four games won, and four lost each.

Worth While Information For The Sick and Ailing

In the performance of good health results to men, women and children, afflicted in the aggregate by about every namable disease and disorder it is daily being demonstrated by the Chiropractors that the secret of health lies in the perfection of the spine.

Disease establishes itself in any part of the body, when nerves become unable to carry the normal amount of vital energy from the brain. In the greater majority of cases the real cause will be found in mechanical pressure on the nerves as they pass through spaces between the bones of the spinal column.

Every Chronic Disorder is the final result of standing conditions of spinal deviations. By examining the spine the cause of any disease, or weakness, or any impairment of health, whatsoever, contained in the common understanding of disease and disorders, can be found, and in most cases can readily be removed, by Chiropractic Adjustments.

Pains about the head, face, eyes, ears, neck, back or limbs, disorders of the brain, lungs, heart, stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels; lowered vitality and sleeplessness are some of the conditions that have in many instances been restored by Chiropractic Adjustments.

During the business session, entertainment and program committees were appointed. The members of the club decided to send a year's subscription to a magazine and other donations of victrola records, books and fruit to the Rehabilitation Club at Valparaiso Ind. This club is composed of disabled ex-soldiers who are learning a new trade at the university, a trade fitted to their impaired capabilities. The government pays the tuition and living expenses but all the social and home life must be provided by the boys or interested people. The Inter Nos club appeals to any other Rush county organization to aid if possible these boys. They are located at 507 Freeman St. Valparaiso, Ind. During the social hour which followed the business session delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

The W. L. C. met with Mrs. Var Hood of Carthage Monday afternoon, with the vice-president, Mrs. Eunice Pnblow presiding. In the absence of the secretary, Mrs. C. V. Gaus, was chosen to serve. Current events were the responses to the roll call followed by a paper "The Land of Exile" prepared by Mrs. Horace Foust.

The entertainment by Mrs. Hood and Mrs. Rowland H. Hill took the form of a Valentine party. The rooms were artistically and appropriately decorated with festoons of red hearts and the lights veiled with red shades. Many Valentine features were introduced. Original Valentines were made, addressed and mailed at the improvised post office. On receiving these, the guests found they contained much humor and talent in a contest forming words from the word "Valentine" in five minutes. Mrs. Jesse Stone, Florence Hunt and Winona Newsom tied for honors for winners of the contest. A comic valentine was given as a prize. Mrs. Will Dill received a similar one for the consolation prize.

On entering the dining room, the guests were served by an inanimate "maid". The dainty refreshments were heart shaped and carried in Valentine colors. Among the guests present for the meeting were Mrs. J. T. Parton of this city, Mrs. Ed Elliott of Knightstown and Miss Hunt of Malden, Mass.

Soviets have been organized throughout France with Brest as headquarters according to the police, ready to take over the railroads, banks, transportation and all civil services. The plot appears to have been organized without the knowledge of M. Cachin, leader of the French Communist party, against whom the police say they will not demand the lifting of parliamentary immunity.

The discovery of checks emanating from Berlin and paid through an American transportation company appears to have caused a revulsion of feeling in French political and social circles and also among the workingmen's committee's which, so far as the leaders profess to be working for "principles" were willing to support them. A poster was issued this evening in the Second ward, where an election will be held Feb. 27, asking the voters to support the moderate Socialist element in reference to the extremists.

The French Communist press departing from its menacing attitude of the last few months, expresses surprise that repressive measures should come from Premier Briand "a former comrade."

L'Humanité, the official organ of the French Communists, appears to be especially upset by the arrest of city editor, M. Dunois, a cancelled check for 20,000 francs issued in his name at Berlin being held by the police.

The consensus in the chamber lobbies, where the robbery of the two Communist deputies has been commented upon freely, is that the government has struck a knockout blow against the Communist propaganda and that when the minister of the interior requests the lifting of

Do You Own A Phonograph?

If you are a Father or a Mother, and do not own a good phonograph, you are certainly depriving those children of a lot of education and pleasure that rightfully belongs to them.

Do you know that Music in the home is just as essential to the proper molding of a child's mind as Arithmetic is at school.

You should not hesitate to give your child these modern advantages.

On $ Day we are going to give you an opportunity such as you have never had before—to buy a phonograph—not an ordinary obscure make—but one of the two best standard instruments on the market—The Sonora or The Vocalion.

This Offer is for $ Day Only

Come to our store—pick out the instrument that you want, and we will make you a present of $5.00 and let it stand as your first down payment on the instrument of your choice—the balance you can easily pay—by our Budget plan system with terms as low as $1.00 weekly.

DON'T MISS THIS OPPORTUNITY

even if you are not ready to buy now—come in and get this credit of $5.00 and apply it to your purchase later on.

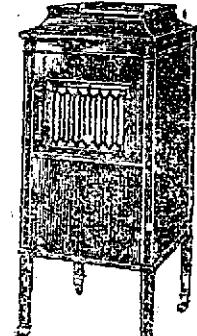

You cannot afford to pass up this most liberal offer. Remember This Offer is For Wednesday, Feb. 16th, $ Day Only.

OPEN AIR MEETING
Captain Conlin, of Indianapolis, state secretary of the Young People's legion of the Salvation Army, and his wife, will be in this city this evening and will conduct a meeting at the Salvation Army hall at 7:30 o'clock. Preceding the indoor meeting an open air meeting will be held at the corner of Second and Main streets.

TO QUARANTINE TYPHUS
New York, Feb. 15—Following two deaths from typhus here, plans were being made today by the public health service for immediate establishment of the twelve day quarantine on all trans-Atlantic passengers. Under this system liners would be compelled to withhold their passengers from landing until twelve days had elapsed from the time of sailing to allow for incubation of the typhus germ which might have been taken into the system of the immigrants.

Discoveries made by the police of Barcelona and Milan show that the plot includes the three European Latin countries. Transmission of funds was effected through an American financial organization, with European headquarters in Paris, and ranches in Berlin and Vienna.

Soviets have been organized throughout France with Brest as headquarters according to the police, ready to take over the railroads, banks, transportation and all civil services. The plot appears to have been organized without the knowledge of M. store.

You know that pepsin is good for indigestion but pepsin could never do what PEPSINCO will. We have dealt in medicines long enough to know the various uses and value. We unhesitatingly say that PEPSINCO is the best remedy for indigestion, gas, flatulency, food distress, sour stomach and pains under the ribs, that ever came out of a drug store. Sufferers of indigestion and dyspepsia well do well to take PEPSINCO.

ALL DAY MEETING
AT LITTLE FLATROCK

Afternoon Meeting is in Form of Memorial to A. McLean, Former Bethany College Head

BASKET DINNER IS SERVED

The all day meeting at Little Flatrock Christian church Sunday was a delightful affair. Members and friends came with well filled baskets. Sunday School was held at ten o'clock followed by an interesting talk by the Rev. Talmage Defreese on "Hope, Joy and Immortality".

At noon in the basement of the church the dinner was served, followed by a social hour. At two o'clock the afternoon services opened by special music rendered by the Misses Reina, May, Norris, Kathleen McKee, Lou and Thelma Moore.

The afternoon meeting was in the form of a memorial for A. McLean, The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Shrontz of Orange, who was a student at Bethany College at the time A. McLean was president, gave an interesting talk followed by the Rev. Mr. Defreese, pastor of the church.

Another all day meeting will be held the second Sunday in March to which all friends are invited.

IS PROUD OF FIRST BILL

Mrs. Nelson, Representative, is Author of Moving Picture Censorship

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 15—Representative Nelson—Mrs. Julia D. Nelson of Munroe—is proud of the first bill she introduced in the legislature. The bill would create a board of movie censors under the state board of education.

Mrs. Nelson also signed her first minority committee report the other day. She is a member of the house committee on state medicine and public health and recommended passage of a bill to regulate chiropody and create a state board to examine chiropodists. Her report, however, was rejected by the house.

Mrs. Nelson is the first woman ever to sit in an Indiana general assembly.

RHEUMATISM

Leaves You Forever

Deep Seated Uric Acid Deposits Are Dissolved and the Rheumatic Poison Starts to Leave the System Within Twenty-Four Hours.

Every druggist in this county is authorized to say to every rheumatic sufferer that if two bottles of Allenrhin, the sure conqueror of rheumatism, does not stop all agony, reduce swollen joints and do away with even the slightest twinge of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment.

Allenrhin has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and piteous and where the patient was helpless.

Mr. James H. Allen, the discoverer of Allenrhin, who for many years suffered the torments of acute rheumatism, desires all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless Allenrhin decisively conquers this worst of all diseases and he has instructed F. B. Johnson & Co., to guarantee it in every instance. (Advertisement.)

Mrs. Nelson also signed her first minority committee report the other day. MANY DE LAVAL Cream Separators have been in continuous service for twenty-five, and even thirty years.

In fact, we never hear of De Laval's wearing out. Almost they are outgrown and replaced by new De Laval's of larger capacity and later design.

De Laval durability is due to simplicity of construction, low bowl speed, high-grade materials and careful workmanship. Every bearing surface of the machine is oiled from one oil cup. This insures correct lubrication, lessens wear on parts and helps to make the De Laval easier to turn.

Because of its greater durability, the De Laval is the least expensive cream separator to own.

We gladly show you why the De Laval lasts so long.

Sooner or later you will buy a De Laval

Introducing Spring Styles In Pretty Dress Ginghams

Ginghams were never so beautiful, so gorgeously colored, so daintily designed, so altogether fascinating and fresh looking as those of Spring, 1921. Checks, stripes, dots, cross-bars, and artistic all-over designs will adapt themselves admirably to making up in becoming dresses and children's garments. The beautiful soft ginghams just received wear longer and launder better than most ginghams you see. They lose none of their freshness and clearness of pattern and color after a few week's wear. They are the best values in our Spring stocks of wash fabrics.

PROGRESS OF H.B. 296 IS WATCHED

Proposes to Add to Department of Conservation a Division of Engineering—Appropriates $15,000

TO INVESTIGATE SWAMP LAND

Humrichouser Measure Relates to Developing Water Power Sites on Hoosier Streams

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 15—Friends of conservation, Purdue University, officials of the state department of conservation and citizens interested in developing water power sites on the Tippecanoe river and other Hoosier streams are watching with interest the progress being made for the employment of a personnel

296, introduced by Representative Humrichouser of Marshall county. This bill proposes to add to the department of conservation a division of engineering and carries an appropriation of $15,000 for the employment of a state engineer and personnel necessary for the proper discharge of such duties.

The purpose of the new division would be to investigate, compile and disseminate information and make recommendations relative to the drainage of swamp lands and the reclamation of arable lands now non-productive.

Indiana at present has a law empowering the state conservation department to investigate and recommend for solution stream pollution problems, but the department since its creation has never received funds for the employment of a personnel necessary for such work. The Humrichouser bill if it becomes a law will simplify this.

Friends of the Humrichouser bill points out that Indiana is in vital need of a state engineer, especially in view of the recent large drainage projects conducted and those in litigation. They assert had there been a state engineer the Kankakee drainage project would have been handled in such a way as to have prevented the present muddle due to large rocks obstructing the river near Muncie, Ind., and which must be blasted away at great cost before the drainage scheme is perfected. They call specific attention to the Noble-Lagrange drainage proposal which would have saddled an enormous expense upon hundreds of land owners who could not possibly have benefitted, and while a few would have profited from this project, much of the area under consideration could have been relieved of surplus water by tiling at a nominal cost, rather than by dredge ditches at enormous expenditure. Particular need of an engineer at this time is vital they claim, in view of the proposed development of hydro-electric power on the Tippecanoe river.

There is a well advanced plan now being considered whereby Eastern Chicago and Indiana capitalists propose to harness this beautiful stream and acquire many hundreds of electric power. At a recent meeting in this city of the Indiana Engineers' Society's super-hydro-electric project on the Tippecanoe was talked of to cost approximately $30,000,000 which proposed to eliminate millions of tons of coal now used in Indiana to produce power, heat and light. Such vast enterprises of the near future when Indiana through increase in population must use more intelligence and intensively its natural resources, are threatened if the matter of establishing a state engineer is longer delayed.

Department of conservation officials said today that if the bill is enacted into our laws, the state engineer will co-operate with the engineering department of Purdue University in a similar manner which the department and Indiana University. By this method the vast fund of information which has been gathered at Purdue and the services of technical experts at that splendid institution will be available to the people of Indiana at a negligible cost.

The Meeker bill introduced at this session proposes to establish a water highway between Lake Michigan and the Ohio river utilizing the Wabash river, and the bill calls for a survey of the Wabash Valley. Supporters of the Humrichouser bill contend that such a survey should be made by a state engineer and by the creation of such an office, can be accomplished more economically functioning under the conservation department co-operating with Purdue, than through an independent committee or commission.

Ulster Leader May be Peer

London, Feb. 15—Sir Edward Carson, the fighting Ulster leader and famous lawyer, celebrates his 67th birthday today, and received many messages from Orangemen the world over. Now that the Ulster Parliament—under the Home Rule Bill—is on the point of being set up, it is expected that Carson will retire from politics. He is mentioned for the important judicial position of Law Lord, which would entail his acceptance of a peerage. Carson could have had any judicial post he wished for years past, but he preferred fighting politics and he also has the most lucrative legal practice of any lawyer today. Rumor places his earnings between 30,000 and 40,000 pounds a year.

MODERN ENOCH ARDEN TAKES RIVAL'S NAME

William Zeisenhenne Took Name of Wife's Dead Husband and is Known as William Proffitt

WAS A VICTIM OF AMNESIA

Cripple Creek, Colo., Feb. 15—Taking the name of his wife's dead husband, William Zeisenhenne, Colorado's Enoch Arden is today known as William Proffitt and is remarried to his former wife after an absence of nearly twenty years.

While returning from work one evening in Cripple Creek, Zeisenhenne was stugged and robbed. For twelve years he was a victim of amnesia and wandered over the United States while his wife and family awaited his return.

Eight years ago he recovered his memory in a Los Angeles hospital. On his return to Denver, Zeisenhenne learned his wife, thinking him dead, had married William Proffitt. Not wishing to mar the happiness of the couple, Zeisenhenne did not explain to them his peculiar disappearance or his recovery from loss of memory.

When Proffitt died, friends notified Zeisenhenne, who was in Chicago. He came to Cripple Creek immediately, and was united to his wife.

Zeisenhenne declared he took the name of Proffitt because his two sons had adopted that name.

REGARDS STRIKE CERTAIN

London, Feb. 15—Secretary Bromley of the British railway engineers union stated today that a nationwide strike is certain to be called if the government does not investigate the shooting of Irish railway men at Maloy last week giving guarantees for the future safety of Irish workmen. Unofficial reports today were that a railway strike had been set tentatively for Thursday at midnight. There was no confirmation of the reports.
